Whew! I am so relieved! I knew there was only one right person for Aggie, and I'm so glad she figured it out, too. :) My heart slowly eased down out of my throat over the course of the story as it became more and more clear that this wasn't just my imagination; it was really what the author intended all along.

"The second in this trilogy, For Keeps continues the wonderful story of Aggie, the guardian of her sister's eight children, the two men in her life:William, who is trying to "save her" and Luke, whose feelings are growing beyond friendship. We forget that this an awfully young protagonist for someone saddled with all this responsibility.
