Four Kitchens My Life Behind

Four Kitchens: My Life Behind the Burner in New York, Hanoi, Tel Aviv, and Paris. At the French Culinary Institute, Lauren Shockey learned the basics, but she also discovered that her real culinary education wouldn't begin until she actually worked in a restaurant. After a somewhat disappointing apprenticeship in the French provinces, Shockey hatched a plan for her dream year: to apprentice in four high-end restaurants around the world.

More than the weight of a menu in my hands or the clinking of glassware behind the bar, I craved food I could not make on my own. Waves of izakaya streamed from the kitchen; little plates of seared Cajun togashi tofu and fried chicken bao bao followed by dishes of yuzu kampachi, splayed out like delicate pink flower petals.
