Fallacious Reasoning: "The God Delusion" By Richard Dawkins
"Science can chip away at agnosticism, in a way that Huxley bent over backwards to deny for the special of God. I am arguing that, notwithstanding the polite abstinence of Huxley, Gould and many others, the God question is not in principle and forever outside the remit of science.

The God Delusion by Richard Dawkins - Goodreads

In his book, The God Delusion, Dawkins attempts to show the irrationality of a belief in God by attacking the idea of such a being on all fronts. He makes his case by providing critical examinations of the role of religion in history, in debunking traditional arguments for God's existence, and through the power of Darwinian natural selection as a replacement for supernatural causes.
