The Opposing Shore Julien Gracq

The Opposing Shore (French: Le Rivage des Syrtes) is a 1951 novel by the French writer Julien Gracq. The story is set at the border between two fictional Mediterranean countries, Orsenna and Farghestan, which have been at war for 300 years.

The Opposing Shore - Wikipedia

The Opposing Shore has a quite unique atmosphere - it is written in the baroque language of the nineteenth century classical novels and at the same time it is fraught with the Kafkian surreal suspense of the kind that permeates The Castle and it even boasts some whiffs of beautifully enigmatic Gormenghast. Yet even the melancholy of that flaming sun over a dead land failed to extinguish in ...
