The selected poems of Li Po (Book, 1996) [WorldCat.org]

One of China's most celebrated poets, Li Po (701-762 C.E.) belongs to earth in the most profound way, for he is free of attachments to self, and that allows him to blend easily into a weave of identification with earth's process of change: that spontaneous burgeoning forth of the ten thousand things. Li Po's poems are suffused with the wonder of being part of this process.
