The Wasted Vigil Nadeem Aslam

Nadeem Aslam’s writing style had grated on my nerves when I read his book,Maps for Lost Lovers. But I already had The Wasted Vigil with me,so I tried to read it too. Again,the prose was almost painful to read.Consider this passage : “The grandson of a watchsmith,he appeals for leniency from the god who decrees the point of no return.The moment when the arrow leaves the bow,..the moment when ...
